

We are excited for our performance this Saturday, February 22nd when our kindergarten level and up ballet students will present our original in-studio mini - ballet production

“The Candystore Suite – A confectionery, cautionary tale”

Performance Information

- Date: Saturday, February 22nd
- Time: Two performances: 2:00 PM and 3:00 PM
- Location: The studio
- Length: Approximately 30 minutes
- Who Performs: All kindergarten-level and older ballet classes perform in BOTH shows.

Special Seating Arrangements

- Due to studio space limitations for our audience and to ensure a comfortable viewing experience, we kindly ask that each family limit their attendance to two adults, plus any siblings who can sit on a lap.
- We will be dividing parents up by the student's last name and assigning the following performance for their audience.
 - Students whose last name begins with A-K - their audience will attend the 2:00 show
 - Students whose last name begins with L-Z - their audience will attend the 3:00 show
- This intimate performance is a special Valentine's treat for parents.
- We encourage grandparents and additional loved ones to join us at our May 31st recital at the Majestic Theater, where there will be ample seating for everyone!

Rehearsal and Show Day Schedule

- Saturday, February 22nd
 - All dancers arrive at 12:00pm for dress rehearsal dressed in usual leotard and tights with hair up.
 - Saturday Kinder and Level 1 will NOT have class that day and instead will arrive at noon for rehearsal.
 - All stay to perform in both shows
 - All are dismissed at 3:45.

Costume Information

- Dancers will only need their usual class uniform that they arrive in: ladies in any black leo and pink tights, pink ballet or pointé shoes with hair up neatly and gentlemen in their black dance pants, white t-shirt, black socks and black ballet shoes.
- We have small accessories to add to their uniform for the show.

Can't wait to see you in the studio for our sweet show!
